

New Office Space Available for International Organisations

The new Tanglin International Centre (TIC) - situated at Kay Siang Road will be ready for occupation from 3Q 2009. Competitive rental, a central location and shared services such as meeting and conference rooms make TIC an ideal location for international organisations to cluster. TIC's premises will not only serve as an office space for international organisations, but also provide a conducive platform for them to interact, share ideas and foster collaborations.

International Organisations Programme Office (IOPO) is pleased to announce this additional resource made available to international organisations interested in setting up in Singapore.

If you would like to know more information about TIC, or IOPO in general, please contact us.
